Dear Parents and Carers

Potential School Closure

As there is a possibility of school closures in the near future we are sending this letter to give you suggestions of activities for your child to complete at home. We think it makes sense to send these sooner rather than later to reach as many families as possible before self-isolation. If any families are already off school and wish to collect a pack they can send someone who is not self-isolating to do so from the school office. We hope these will be educational and helpful however, we do not want to put extra pressure on families and so please do not worry if you do not complete them. These activities are suggestions for your child's class you may need to make them easier or more challenging depending on your child.

Purple Mash

We have attached a copy of the original Purple Mash letter which explains how to log on with your child's unique username and password. There are a large variety of activities which children can access here and cover all areas of the curriculum.

Twinkl - a website that teachers use

Twinkl is offering every parent and carer in the United Kingdom access to all Twinkl resources with a One Month Ultimate Membership, totally free of charge. This will provide you access to high-quality learning during any periods of disruption.

Setting this up is really easy to do - go to www.twinkl.co.uk/offer and enter the code UKTWINKLHELPS

Phonics Play - a website we sometimes use in our phonics lessons

A site packed with interactive phonics games, ideas and resources to help children to learn to hear and blend phonemes and read words. It is set out into different phases - focus on phases 2, 3 and 4 for Reception and phases 4 and 5 for Year 1.

Reading

We will be retaining reading diaries and school reading books (for teachers to use for assessment purposes). Children have been provided with their Easter book from school to enjoy reading at home and there are a wide range of reading and phonics activities on Purple Mash, Twinkl and Phonics Play. Children also have phoneme flashcards which they can practise.

Writing Books

Children have all been provided with a home learning book and pencils to encourage daily writing at home. They could write simple sentences about what they have been doing (what they have watched on TV, what they had for tea etc.) or draw a picture and label it. There are also phoneme mats and letter formation sheets to help support this. Children can also practise forming/handwriting the phonemes which are on their flashcards.

Creative Books

Children have a plain exercise book and some creative resources to complete imaginative pictures of their choosing. These could be linked to our topic of Africa or in preparation for our next topic 'The Sea' or anything they choose.

We will provide further updates via text and Twitter (@Hallcroft1971) as appropriate.
